Joseph Prince Parable

The parable of the sower teaches us that once we receive God's Word into our hearts regarding our situation, God's blessings will manifest in progression. When we receive our thirtyfold manifestation, it means that 70 per cent of that condition is still there. But some of us give up at thirtyfold because we still feel more pain than relief.

In three parables Jesus gives us three pictures of faith and unbelief. Faith is looking forward to the Lord's return (the parable of the ten virgins), it's receiving the wealth of his grace (the parable of the talents), and investing it in the lives of those who need it (the parable of the sheep and goats).
